A meeting of the L & C. Electric Railway company was held, Wednesday afternoon, and the name of the company was officially changed to Leominster & Clinton Street Railway company, the name of Clinton Street Railway Co. being dropped. A meeting of the Turners Falls & Greenfield company was also held at the Columbia. The above company have purchased the Montague Street Railway company's stock, and the two roads have been consolidated.

NewspaperArchive by Storied

Fitchburg Sentinel, May 28, 1896 Pg. 5, Fitchburg, Massachusetts, US
https://newspaperarchive.com/fitchburg-sentinel-may-28-1896-p-5/